

Australian Library

For the most comprehensive coverage of legal issues from Australia, our Westlaw databases offer you case law, legislation, regulations, court rules, texts, law reviews and other periodicals, as well as the latest news information, sent direct to your desktop

Familiar Westlaw commands enable you to efficiently access all the information you need, even when you are researching unfamiliar materials.

Look no further for the latest details on:

Case Law

The Australian Cases database contains the full text of reported and unreported decisions of the High Court of Australia and the Federal Court of Australia.

Legislation and Regulations

The Commonwealth of Australia Acts database contains consolidated versions of commonwealth acts in Australia.

Securities, Banking and Finance materials

Rules, guidance, rulings and other materials are available from several Australian financial institutions and regulatory bodies. For example, the Australian Stock Exchange combined multibase provides business and listing rules, guidance notes and other ASX materials.

International Arbitration Materials

Australian International Commercial Arbitration – All database offers all Australian international commercial arbitration cases and legislation available on Westlaw.

News

Use the Australian News database to stay current with news and information about Australia from newspapers, magazines, journals, newsletters, radio and television transcripts, and wires provided by Dialog, a Thomson Company.
