

Municipal Corporations Library

For all the relevant information you need on Municipal Law, look no further than this complete and impressive library of databases containing:

McQuillin – The Law of Municipal Corporations

This database from McQuillin contains the full text of the leading authority on municipal law, and consists of 30 indexed, annotated volumes that study all aspects of the law of municipal corporations, including analysis of all significant cases on essentially every critical point of law.

Matthews Municipal Ordinances

Divided into two sections – Text and Forms, this database contains the full text of Matthews Ordinances that provides a practical guide for drafting a wide variety of ordinances that are both legally correct and understandable to the courts, municipal officials, and the general public.

Municipal Legal Forms

For the full text of Municipal Legal Forms, this database contains an 11-volume forms set published by West Group, and including municipal governmental and business forms such as licenses and applications, contracts and leases.

McQuillin Municipal Law Reports

In this database you'll find a monthly newsletter, published by West, that keeps you abreast of the latest key federal and state court decisions affecting municipalities.

Written especially for lawyers, administrators, and municipal officials, it covers the latest cases in civil rights, licensing, environmental law, FSLA issues, home rule, voting rights, taxes, zoning, public utilities, and land use. In addition to clear case summaries and analyses, the Report highlights trends, discusses statutory and regulatory developments, and includes practice tips and cross-references to McQuillin – The Law of Municipal Corporations.

McQuillin – The Law of Municipal Corporations: Land Use and Zoning Practice

Contains selected zoning and planning materials from McQuillin – The Law of Municipal Corporations, the leading authority on municipal law. Among the highlights are discussions on: The Power to Zone, Zoning Laws, Ordinances, and Regulations, Areas Subject to Zoning, Residential, Apartment, Duplex, Multiple-Family Dwelling, Business and Industrial Zones, Subdivisions, Uses, Restrictions and Exclusions, Variances, Exceptions and Special Uses, Non-conforming Uses, Zoning Commissions, Boards of Adjustment, Bodies, and Officials, Legislative and Administrative Procedures, Judicial and Administrative Appeals.